Terms and Conditions

If weather or any other circumstances beyond the control of C-LIFE causes the course to be delayed, changed or cancelled, no liability can be accepted by the aforesaid party for consequential loss, damage or expense incurred. Candidates using C-LIFE equipment for any course are responsible for that equipment and will be charged for any loss or damage arising from negligent behaviour. Candidates may not participate in any diving activities without satisfactory completion of a medical statement and paid in full prior to their start date. Duty of Care requirements state candidates between the ages of 10-16 must have a parent or guardian present while training is taking place. A teacher must be present if the course is organised through a school. A buoyancy control device must be worn during all water activities. C-LIFE or its employees cannot be held responsible for damage, loss or injury caused by negligence or otherwise. Deposits (first £70) are un-refundable and will be held if candidates cancel or defer their course. No refund of fees can be made once the course has commenced or within seven days of starting due to cancellation or deferment. Deferment before seven days of course start date will incur a cost of £70. There is a minimum of 3 in group for above prices. No refund of fees for the Open & Advanced package if cancelled, deferred or fail to pass any part. Full payment must reach the office four weeks before the course start date or the candidate will have their place cancelled. Candidates who miss any scheduled sessions or retake (any one 24hr period) on their course and wish to continue on a later course with and without prior arrangement will be charged £70 for each extra session. The Open Water Video must be returned on the first day of their course and a refund will be issued. This is due to C-Life's high demand of candidates waiting for availability, costs incurred and fairness to C-Life staff and other customers. Candidates will agree to abide by the rules of C-LIFE ltd in all diver training matters.

I have read, understood and agreed the terms and conditions of the booking.
